CHAMBER HEARS REPORT

Suggestion Made that Annual Outing This Year Be Held at Atlantic City.

P. T. Mor. n, chairman of the comon transportation and freight of the Chamber of Commerce, submitted a report of his committee at a meeting of the chamber last night. He stated that answer to inquiries which he sen lo the merchants of Washington, he had received estimates of the losses they would suffer by the stoppage of free deliveries of freight by the railroads, deliveries of freight by the railroads, and that these estimates totaled about 170,000 a year. This estimate did not include all the loss that would take place by the putting into effect of the ruling to Corontinue free deliveries, which has been planued by the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroads. vania and Baltimore and Onio railroads, he said. He further reported that his committee had presented the evidence of their side of the case to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and that he believed that the commission would determine in favor of the merchants. D. J. Raufman, submitting a report on the lighting of Pennsylvania Avenue and other streets, put the stamp of approval of his committee upon the rew lights and posts designed by W. C. Allen, electrical engineer for the District, which have been designed for Pennsyl-vania Avenue. The new lights will be of 1,500-are instead of 200 incandescent candlepower. The chamber indorsed the project of a world's permanent exposi-tion for Washington.

It was moved that President D. J. Callahan, of the chamber, should ap-point delegates in response to invitation to the Fifth Annual Congress on City Planning, which will be held in Chicago, Glenn Brown announced that William M. Eilicott, of Baltimore, and B. H. Haman, will address the members of the chamber and their friends at the next meeting on April 8, on the question of national forest reservations. The chamber will endeavor to arrange to hold the meeting in the Raleigh Hotel. As they believe that the time is argent to take up the matter of preserving our forests, the members are anxious to have as many as possible hear the ad-dress of Mr. Ellicott, who will speak especially upon legislation under consideration for the preservation of the pallsades of the Potomac and forest tracts along the Patuxent River. "Our cities are woefully deficient in forest re serves." Mr. Brown commented in announcing the speakers.

Invitation to send delegates of the chamber to the international urbitration chamber to the hold at Lake Mohawk. conference, to be held at Lake Mohawk. N. Y. May 14, 15, and 16, was read, and the president was authorized to appoint as many as wished to attend. The same action was taken in regard to a similar invitation for delegates to the conserva-tion congress, to be held some time in Senshore Outing Proposed.

Communication from the Retail Grove ers' Protective Association, requesting the indorsement of the chamber of its project to hold a food show at Convention Hall November 2 to 15, was pre-sented. This communication was refer-red to a committee for investigation and report. The National Capital Horse Show, which will be held in Washington May 3, 5, 6, and 7, sent a request for the co-operation of the chamber, more especially that the chamber arrange with railroads for excursions to Washington during the show. Gum Tragacanth.

Heavy rains during June and July greatly affected the 1912 yield of Cappadocian gum tragacanth, and the output is estimated at 400 tons, against 500 tons in 1911. As most of the gum is discolored, the white qualities (which are the ones principally desired in the United States) are comparatively scarce and their prices are somewhat high.

APPLES FORTY CENTS EACH.

One Missouri Grower Found a Way to Get Big Price for His Pruit.

. A. Coult in Technical World. Missouri apples were listed on the menu cards of two or three exclusive New York hotels the past winter at 40 cents each, which was about the cost of half a bushel of apples anywhere in the open market. The difference in cost represents, very largely, exclusiveness and profit, with a little additional expense for packing.

When the early prospects of a large apple crop in all sections of America became assured in midsummer, a grower at Lebanon, Mo., with an orchard of 109 acres, realized that something unusual would have to be done to get more than a living price for his crop. He went to New York to solicit orders. He had the idea that an exclusive would New York to solicit orders. He had the idea that an exclusive offering would ownmand high prices, and suggested to some of the commission men that they try a few individual boxed apples for the trade in addition to their order for several thousand barrels of apples for the general market. One New York commission man thereupon signed a contract for 6,000 apples for which he was to pay I5 cents each at Lebanon, the number being limited to make them sufficiently exclusive.

Each apple was perfectly sound, of high color and uniform shape, not less than three and one half inches in diamethan three and one nair inches in diame-ter, nor more than a quarter of an inch-larger. Each stem had at least two perfect leaves attached and each apple was packed in an attractive pasteboard box and the top scaled.
